

Disinvestment and Demolition

Ledwood have the capability to execute complete Plant Disinvestment solutions for the process industry, from a single element of equipment, through to full assessment, budget development, value recovery, disinvestment and disposal of an entire plant.

Having engineering experience in providing solutions to the upstream oil & gas, refining, petrochemical and power industries allows a wide range of industry experience to be applied, providing innovative & cost effective solutions to be provided. Ledwood can be relied upon to provide expertise and assistance in all parts of the deplanting process and are happy to work on a variety of reimbursement methods, including lump sum, target, incentivised, risk transfer (sale and buyback) and open book—guided by Client needs.

Competent and safe Demolition and Disinvestment of Process Plant. Engineered solutions fully compliant with CDM and Waste Regulations.

Plant assessment and hazard identification

Disinvestment of plant and equipment for asset sale or transfer

Waste separation and management including high value material recovery